

Alternative Route 100 Klm RIDER NOTES

The map overleaf gives a rough outline of the 100 km course. Marshals in orange/yellow safety vests will be on duty at major intersections to assist riders to follow the course.

The course is marked with coloured arrows, the 100 km course is marked in BLUE.

Riders are to obey all traffic rules and regulations (including to stay on correct side of road when riding as a large group at the commencement). Please note that this is a ride not a race.

On narrow sections of roadway riders should not ride abreast and should show courtesy to motorists in an effort to avoid conflict and maximize safety.

Marshals will assist riders but they will not be controlling traffic. Riders are responsible for their own safety.

Within the grounds of Mt Penang Parklands there are grids to be crossed which have timber ramps to assist but care should be taken.

Police will be on duty at some intersections and patrolling the course. Riders need to obey all directions given by Police.

Riders to stay as a group until the second roundabout. After that riders can set their own pace.
